LONE RANGER, POLICE IN QUEEN STREET ROUNDUP

STAR GAZE

Seven police cars, 14 policemen, and Altona's Ranger, took part in what was possibly Altona's first cattle drive last Sunday night.

The police were called from Sunshine by D24 to round up 46 cattle, which had broken out of a paddock in the Werribee Shire and strayed onto Queen Street.

The call for help came at 8 p.m., by which time the cattle had spread from Laverton to Koorringal golf course.

Aided by city ranger, Mr. Robert Heyen, it took the police about seven hours to herd the cattle and drive them in two mobs to the council's impounding yards.

Contacted by the Star, Mr. Heyden said the last cow was not yarded until 3.25 a.m. on Monday.

He said the cattle were driven along Altona's official stock route which is Queen Street.

"They were taken north along David Street to the council yard," he said.

"On the previous night — Saturday — a man driving along Queen Street crashed into an SEC pole when he swerved to avoid twelve cattle which were on the road.

"The man, Mr. Victor Pekarsky, has written off his car," said Mr. Heyen, explaining that the cattle had escaped from another paddock.

"And the night before that, I was called to yard eight cattle which had also strayed onto Queen Street."

Town Clerk, Mr. Syd Fell told the Star that on a previous weekend, a police vehicle and a council vehicle had been damaged during an attempt to roundup stray cattle in Kororoit Creek Road.

"One week it's horses and the next week it's cattle," he said.

Mr. Fell said he did not know what action the police were likely to take against the owner of the cattle which had strayed on Sunday night.

One humorous side-light of the "trail drive" on Sunday evening was a David Street resident, who, after rubbing his eyes in disbelief, closed his front door and went back to bed.

This was after discovering a cow on his front porch, in the small hours of Monday morning.

Discussing the incident the next day, one local resident commented, "The ranger is certainly earning his money the hard way this year."

With all the excitement of the recent record Altona hospital ball now over, there's the Altona mayoral ball at Shirley Park Reception on Friday, July 14, and the Altona Apex ball at the Tarmac Hotel on the following Friday.

Tickets for the mayoral ball are available from the civic offices.

For tickets to the Apex ball, contact the Tarmac Hotel.

Jock McLean from Laverton is (if you'll excuse the pun) having a bad trot. Recently he gashed his hand at jiu jitsu practice and last Sunday a group of young chaps in an unregistered car drove into the back of his horse. Fortunately there was no serious damage.

Altona lifesaving club president, Roy Edwards and club members were guests of Altona Council on Tuesday night and rightfully so. Council extended the invitation on the recommendation of Cr. Pat Burns in order to show its appreciation of the work that is carried out by the lifesavers in making Altona beach a safe place to swim.

Are you a skinny, underweight, weakling with a bit of time to spare. If so, contact Alf Cerone at Altona Youth Club and he'll sign you up in his weightlifting class.

Here's another one for the Good Deed Department. Nev. has announced that he will be clearing a number of items from his new treasure mart in Pier Street. No, he's not selling the goods, but giving them to members of the Altona elderly citizens' club.

They've cleaned our beach

That's an awful lot of brownies and guides and their combined efforts have left a lot of clean beach behind. Altona North brownies and guides have been awarded Altona City Council's 1971-72 shield for "operation beachclean".

Between them they worked 146½ hours cleaning Altona beach.

Kids will again get play centres

Mothers who are already dreading the not too far distant Christmas holiday can relax with the knowledge that Altona Council will again give financial support for holiday play centres next January.

The centres are conducted by the National Fitness Council.

They provide many activities for children on holidays, including various excursions.

Beauty Climate by Coty are thinking of you all Girls — here we have their winter Skin Care Specials. You realise of course that cosmetic specials are really something!

Always such a larger amount at the usual price. This makes it so worthwhile — your face tells you how necessary it is.

Cleansers for example —

Instant Cleanser — for customers who prefer a liquid cleanser, this rich creamy emulsion cleanses deep down, leaves your skin feeling soft and really clean. This cleanser is best used on Normal to Dry and slightly oily skins.

Now Avocado Milk is a gentle soothing cleansing milk, containing oil of Avocado which is rich in vitamins. Non-oily, it is highly recommended for Oily and Slightly Oily, also Sensitive Oily Skins.

Rinse Off Cleanser is best for normal to Oily skins. A remarkable washing cream.

Follow your cleansing with your freshener. If your skin is Normal to Dry, you should use Skin Freshener with its gentle stimulating action. Oily Skins can use Special Astringent which tightens pores, removes excess oil from the surface and helps normalise the skin and alkaline balance.

Normal, Dry and Sensitive skins can use the rich absorbing Night Cream.

Daily, use Moisturiser Balancer. This moisture emulsion contains vitamins A, D and E to feed your cold wind blown skin. Maintains your normal skin oil/moisture balance which is so important to keep your skin looking young and smooth.

Remember — bigger containers — same price. Ask for your particular skin need.

Bye.

Cr. Weaver believes in a busy life

Altona councillor Harry Weaver has come a long way since his first job — collecting glasses and returning them to the bar at Williamstown Racecourse for 10 shillings a meeting.

A councillor since 1965, he is a master builder and a partner in the building firm, H. & L. Weaver.

He has no political affiliations and believes that local government is no sphere in which to play politics.

As a member of the council he thinks his first duty is to the citizens of Altona.

Cr. Weaver comes up for re-election this August, and, if successful, he will probably be the city's next Mayor.

He has been council's representative on the Board of Works for more than three years, and during that time the Board has spent more than two and a half million dollars.

Board meetings take up three days a month, and this, together with council meetings and dealing with ratepayers problems, means Cr. Weaver has his hands full.

As Altona council's representative, Cr. Weaver has been fighting for a sewerage system for the whole of Altona.

He was responsible for the construction of groynes on Altona beach to act as sand traps, and it was his idea to stock Cherry Lake with fish.

He holds the council portfolio of public relations and is responsible for the Altona Newsheet.

Born and raised in the district — Somerville Road, Kingsville to be exact — Cr. Weaver's family moved to Altona in 1938.

He was apprenticed to Footscray builder Percy Thomas and rode his bicycle to work in Footscray and Essendon.

Halfway through his apprenticeship he started working for himself during weekends, pitching roofs.

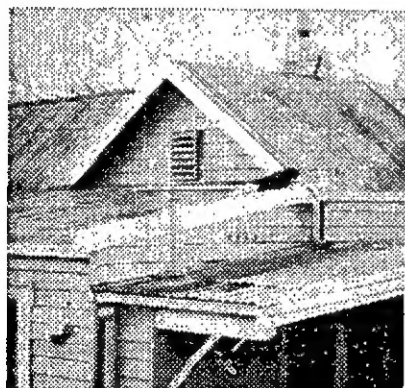

After his apprenticeship Harry and Bill Smith started the building partnership of Weaver and Smith, which later became H. & L. Weaver when Bill Smith retired.

Cr. Weaver and his wife, Lorna, have three children — Paul 15, Jennifer 12, and Peter 7.

• Altona councillor Harry Weaver ... possibly the city's next mayor.

GRATEFUL

Altona's Board of Works Commissioner, Cr. Harry Weaver, has received a letter of thanks from two residents for his advice and help in conjunction with the sewerage being connected to their property.

The letter, from McBain Street residents, J. E. and O. D. Hopkins, read: "At one time it was apparent that we would be left without sewerage."

"We appealed to Commissioner Weaver for his advice and he at once went into action, and we are happy to say the work has now commenced."

"THANKS"

Altona Council has received a letter of thanks from Altona Hockey Club for its help during the recent junior hockey carnival.

In his letter to council, club secretary, Mr. D. C. Smith, said: "We sincerely thank Cr. Stewart, who deputised for His Worship the Mayor at the carnival, a job which he did admirably."

DEPUTATION

Altona Council recently agreed to meet a deputation of members from the Altona North Youth Hall committee of management to discuss various items in connection with the hall.

The driver, John Walter Stubberfield, of Kiora Street, Laverton, pleaded guilty to a charge of having driven with a blood alcohol level of more than .05 per cent.

A second charge of careless driving was withdrawn.

Sergeant Alf Barnham of Altona police, told the court he was called to the scene of an accident in Maidstone Street near Queen Street at 7.10 p.m. on January 14.

He said he saw there a damaged Volkswagen sedan on the East side of Maidstone Street.

Stubberfield was in the hands of ambulance men.

Sgt. Barnham said Stubberfield had admitted he was the owner of the car and said he had been driving it when the accident happened about 7 p.m.

He had been driving along Maidstone Street when the car veered left and hit a pole and a fence.

Sgt. Barnham said Stubberfield could not account for the accident happening on a wide, straight road.

He admitted he had had some beer a short while before.

Stubberfield was taken to Footscray Hospital for a check and was given a breathalyser test.

His blood alcohol level was .110 per cent.

Mr. H. Boarder SM convicted Stubberfield and fined him $30 with a stay of 14 days to pay.

His licence was cancelled and he was disqualified from obtaining another for six months.

GMH's PROTOTYPE MOTOR-HOME

General Motors Corporation has unveiled an experimental 26 ft. prototype of a complete motor home.

It utilises front wheel drive, a low and wide frame, tandem rear wheels with independent air suspension, and an aluminium and moulded-fibreglass body.

Development work is continuing for other potential applications, such as a small bus for metropolitan transit operations, an ambulance and emergency rescue vehicle, a mobile medical clinic, a vehicle for physically-handicapped riders, an airport bus, and a display or service van.

GM plans to produce 23 and 26 ft. motor home versions in the 10,500 pound gross vehicle weight class early in 1973 in response to the fast-growing demand for self-propelled recreational vehicles in the United States.

Each unit will be equipped with self-contained dining, sleeping and bath facilities in a variety of interior floor plans.

The prototype is powered by a 455 cubic inch V8 engine with four-barrel carburation and 265 net horsepower, and is equipped with a three-speed automatic transmission.

Its six-wheel braking system includes front wheel disc brakes and drum brakes at each of the four rear wheels.

The interior features complete kitchen, sleeping and bath accommodation, twin dinettes with removable tables, vinyl-faced conditioning and a dual-passenger front seat.

Top left: This is the experimental prototype of the complete motor home. In the other pictures the unit is illustrated as a vehicle for physically handicapped riders (upper left); a small bus (lower left); and an emergency rescue vehicle (lower right). The prototype features front-wheel drive, a low frame, tandem rear wheels with independent air suspension, a six-wheel braking system, and an aluminium and moulded fibreglass body.

battle of the giants!!

In a dramatic confrontation between drivers and promoters at the Surfer's Paradise circuit, the fourth round of the Australian Sports Car Championship was successfully boycotted by local drivers. The dispute over prize money resulted in severely depleted grids for all events and caused the virtual collapse of the meeting.

Auto Action has a full report of the meeting — such as it was! There was much more action at Adelaide where Moffat and Jane fought tooth and nail for victory in the fifth round of the Australian Touring Car Championship. Both drivers were shown the bad sportsmanship flag during a race-long dice which is one of the closest seen at the A.I.R.

God save them...

There are people whom nobody loves.

The vagrant, too drunk to care whether he'll freeze to death on a park bench.

The lonely. The homeless. The delinquent child, the deserted mother, the drug addict.

People who reach the pit of despair.

Salvation Army officers deal with the casualties of modern society — they help everybody, no questions asked.

But the Salvation Army asks the people of our community to think about its need for funds in order to keep giving to the needy.

In the 115 Corps Community Centres throughout Victoria, old people are given a place and character building programmes for children and youth are fostered.

The Salvation Army's Red Shield Appeal will be made throughout the country on Sunday, July 2.

A doorknock is organised for this day and further details can be obtained from the Red Shield Appeal Director, Major Linsell, phone 63 4851.

Bituminous concrete surfacing was undertaken in Upton Street between Civic Parade and Railway

● Altona Yough Club Building:

Flooring of the hall to be used by St. John Ambulance Brigade was completed.

Electrical wiring is in progress.

● Staff:

Mr. B. Chipman, who was appointed to the staff following the resignation of Mr. David Rees, commenced work on June 19.

● Unemployed Relief Labor:

An amount of $20,400 was applied for, and granted, for the employment of registered local unemployed persons for the current financial year.

Currently 19 persons are employed. Funds allocated have been expended and the Local Government Department has advised that no further funds are to be made available. Employment can be found for some of the men for a while, on special jobs, but employment of others had to be terminated.

ALTONA'S MAN MADE DESERT

The mystery of the sea, its winds and tides, has long confounded the "sand-savers" of Altona bay.

In past years, engineers have visited the area to demonstrate their technical virtuosity.

Groynes have risen and fallen as great civilizations.

Intricate wooden catches have been pounded down and seaweed has piled up. At times, in frustration, sand has been purchased elsewhere and dropped on the shore.

Then, strangely, at the whim of the waves, a beach of yellow golden sand is tossed up to confound the experts.

The enormous difficulty in retaining good beach sand here at Altona cannot be denied.

It is almost as if individual grains of sand are possessed of an evil and autonomous intent to desert their fellows.

Given this perplexing and so far insoluble problem, it is distressing to consider the activities of the Board of Works along our foreshore.

Not so long ago, the Board spent considerable time and effort excavating a 300 feet wide outfall drain in Altona West. This in itself was good, because it converted land that was once a swamp into useable ground.

Unfortunately, the Board failed (as many engineers do) to consider the effect of its activities on the environment. Whatever their reasons, hire or finance, the workers on the job managed to create a man-made desert around the excavated area.

Yes, the earth, plants, delicate life itself, were torn up without thought.

On either side of the channel, vegetation struggled for a hold in a Sahara of sand.

The winds came and blew the soil away, tons of it. The process continued for years.

Eventually the hills were levelled and somehow, here and there, a skinny green weed erupted in timid splendor. Today a slender verge of growth cloaks the banks.

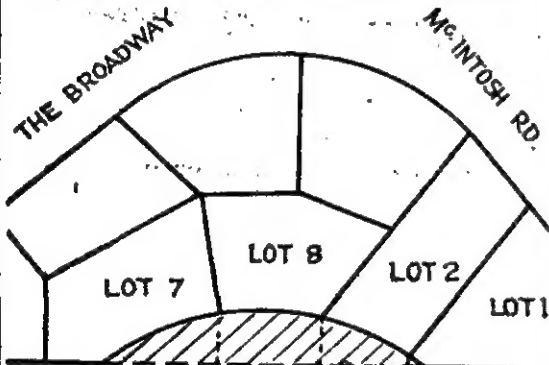

After their work had been completed, how simple it would have been for the work force to restore the natural balance of the area.

Just a few seeds, a little time, a little care. Is this too much to ask?

BILL ROSS, of "Natural Thing".

Teachers victimised — VSTA

The editor this week received the following letter about the teacher strike:

SIR — VSTA members from 38 western region high schools recently went out on strike in protest against alleged victimisation of two temporary teachers.

Striking teachers accept the view that the Education Department has the right to terminate the services of teachers. However, the same teachers believe that no persons should be dismissed without charges being brought against them, and the same persons should have an opportunity to answer these charges.

There are two kinds of Education Department employees — temporary and permanent.

It is well for the public, especially parents, to note that as far as questions of dismissal and transfer are concerned, the Education Department has two different answers.

Before a permanent teacher can be dismissed a teacher can ask for charges to be specified and has the right of appeal to the Teachers' Tribunal against his dismissal.

The temporary teacher can be arbitrarily dismissed with no reasons given and with no right of appeal. Is it just that teachers in the second group have no rights in this respect?

It is also worthwhile for parents to reflect upon some of the details involving at least one of the teachers.

During the May holidays, Mr. Livingston (an art teacher at Brunswick High School) received a letter, dated May 11, from the Education Department, stating that his services would be terminated from May 22.

At an interview with two VSTA executive members, the director-general of secondary education, Mr. Brooks, suggested that Mr. Livingston was being dismissed for incompetence.

Mr. Brooks indicated he would not accept references made by senior teachers from Brunswick High on Livingston's behalf.

On May 18, Mr. Livingston received written notification that the earlier notification of termination of services would be withdrawn and that he would be transferred to Hadfield High School.

Why has the Education Department continued to employ a teacher that they themselves regard as incompetent?

Because the Education Department knows it made a mistake and Livingston in fact is competent, and the courageous striking teachers of Brunswick have stood up for their colleagues and helped secure his job.

Having made a mistake about Livingston, it is possible that they have also made a mistake in connection with the dismissed Coburg High School teacher.

VSTA teachers want proper procedures to be developed through negotiation with the Education Department so that victimisation of temporary teachers ceases.

Yours, &c.,
Keith E. Donovan, Secretary VSTA,
Sunshine High School.

Three members of the choir of the Seventh Day Adventist Church at Spotswood are pictured during the current series of evangelical meetings being held at the hall in Roberts Street. They are (from left): Mrs. Marion Labas, Mrs. Mira Jankov and Mrs. Olga Fijet. Their gowns are black with a sharp orange blaze. Mr. Colin Lockyer, pastor at the church, which draws members from throughout the western suburbs, speaks on a religious theme each Sunday evening. Members of the public are welcome.

ON THE ORGAN

Delightful Ceylonese organist, Carol Caspersz, will be making a return appearance at the Michael Hendry International Organ Club, in the Manchester Unity Hall, Footscray, on Tuesday, July 4, at 8 p.m.

Judging from her last appearance, a large attendance is expected to welcome Carol and her interesting style and approach. To both the evergreen and the popular tunes.

Carol's selections often fall into Latin styles, with the accent on mambo, rumbas and cha-chas. She will be played on a Kimball theatre organ, with twin computer, identical to the instrument she herself owns.

As a bonus offer, the Caspersz brothers, Trevor and Humphrey, will sing three groups of songs and possibly some requests.

Other news is the Music Quiz — with only one semi-final to go, the interest and subsequent excitement is building, wondering as to who the winner will be.

Any one who attends is eligible to participate in the quiz.

Arnold Coleman will appear in recital, at the club, during August. Arnold was famous throughout Australia for his broadcasts and evening appearances at the big four-keyboard theatre organ at the "State".

GULLS GIVEN A MESSAGE

Williamstown got the message loud and clear at Oakleigh on Sunday — they will have to improve an awful lot to have any chance of taking off this year's VFA first division flag.

The Gulls 40 point loss was a dismal result. Especially after a brilliant third quarter, which saw them leading by three points. And to make matters worse, umpire McMaster was confusing the players with his sometimes bewildering decisions. At least Williamstown won the toss and Papley elected to defend the stand end goal. Oakleigh were smartly into attack and coach, Bob Johnson, registered the first goal of the match. The Gulls fought back to try and notch an evening, but each attack resulted in a behind.

Eventually, after three near misses, Les Stillman, goaled after taking a screamer of a mark. The game was developing into an even struggle and Jackman booted the Gulls second goal. But the Oaks came back again and led by one point at the initial change.

The Gulls started the second term with confidence and a lucky goal to Mulligan put them five points up, closely followed by one from David Collins. Johnson kicked another two majors and put his team back in front again, but not for long. Mulligan sank two home, Oakleigh likewise and Jackman, scouting the packs, kicked a well deserved goal.

The siren sounded for the interval and the scoreboard showed the scores to be even. The stage was set for a dramatic last two acts and each team realised that there would be no encore for the loser.

Mulligan opened the Gulls third quarter with a major, but Oakleigh slammed on three quick goals. Luckily for Williamstown, Mulligan and Stillman came to the rescue, with a goal apiece. Hemley goaled and then Mulligan scored yet another, the Gulls were three points up when the final term got under way.

One goal each to Papley and Collins was all the Gulls could find this quarter, as they looked amazed at the revitalised Oakleigh side. Oakleigh ran riot in this term and went on to win by the large margin of 40 points.

Best players: Bill Thompson, one great performance backed up well all day and his clearing dashes were something to behold. He is easily the best first year player Williamstown has seen for some seasons. Mick Mulligan, takes the second vote; booted six goals and his general forward work was good. Back to his very best form. Kevin Jackman, was the third best Gull afield, his stylish roving was very classy.

Les Stillman gave a good performance in the centre against Ford, who was not sighted until the final term. David Collins produced a much improved showing and got two handy goals. Bob Percy was another player who showed up many times.

Votes to date: Thompson 8, Percy 7, Stillman 7, Boxall 6, Egan 5, Bastian 3, Harvey 3, Dunlop 3, Fenton 3, Hannebery 2.

SECONDS — Through some misunderstanding only 14 players found their way to the Williamstown ground on Saturday. And until half time that was all they had on the field, but at this stage the Gulls led 56 to 15 points. Coach, Bob Johnson, sent a taxi home for his gear and he took the field in a great sporting gesture. His presence on the field made a difference to his side and he booted five goals personally. Still it was Williamstown's day and they won by 63 points. Williamstown 19.16. (130) d Oakleigh 10.7 (67). Goals: McTaggart 4, Groves 3, Bastian 3, Scott 2, Hynes 2, A. Richards 1, Egan 1, Kenny 1, Hemley 1, Hines 1, Jarrad 1.

Best players: John Wittington, the captain, played a great game in defence. He excelled himself and led his team with confidence. Mike Bastian, played his first game with the seconds. Mike played strongly all day and booted 3 goals. He has seemingly regained his health and will be in the senior side this week. Robert Scott, coming up from the thirds. Young Robert played a great game. He went for the ball fearlessly and his kicking was excellent. Thirds coach, Merrill, says he is a certainty for the firsts this year. Ian (Huckie) Johnson gave a good display. Kevin Egan turned in a good game after his injury and could make the seniors soon. Phillip McTaggart with four goals to his credit, would be the best of the rest.

Votes to date: Meyers 9, Anstey 6, Joniec 6, Wallace 5, N. Stillman 5, Wittington 4, Hemley 3, Kenny 3, James 2, McTaggart 2, Hynes 2, Bastian 2, Jarrad 1, Groves 1, Radzinski 1, A. Richards 1, Scott 1.

Coburg at home on Sunday. Williamstown meet Coburg at home this Sunday and they should repeat their win of earlier in the season. This is the start of the second round. Coburg tossed Port last Sunday, so they will be on top of the world this time. Other games are: PRESTON v Dandenong, Port Melbourne v SANDRINGHAM, Waverley v SUNSHINE, Prahran v OAKLEIGH.

STUDENTS BUILD FOUNTAIN

Students at Williamstown Technical School felt that the area in front of their hall was too bare.

So they decided to build a fountain.

The students in form 5A are aged 15-16.

Made from rocks with a steel structure interior, the fountain was designed by the students.

They consulted several district engineers to find out which design was most stable.

The project combined a number of subjects, such as mathematics, woodwork, plumbing, electrical and other related fields.

The fountain will stand 7 ft. above the ground, its width is 13 ft. 3 in. with a water flow of 40 gallons a minute.

Exhibition needs more artists

Artists have a golden opportunity to enter their work in the Beta Sigma Phi's XiMu Chapter Art Show.

The art show will be held in the Civic Hall, Altona from October 7 to October 10.

The commission charged on sales will be 15 per cent., as in previous years.

Proceeds will go to Melbourne Ladies' Welfare Society and Little David Spastics Centre, Yarraville.

There will be exhibits of paintings, pottery, jewellery, Bonsai and all kinds of handicrafts.

A display of crewelwork by two club members will be a highlight — the work of Bronwen Hawkins and Jacqueline Foulkes.

Inquiries and requests for entry forms can be sent to Mrs. J. Foulkes, 6 Grieve Parade, Altona, phone 398 2683.

Beta Sigma Phi is a cultural organisation, which was founded in the USA in 1931. There are 9000 world-wide chapters in 20 countries, of which 50 chapters are in Australia.

The first Australian Convention was held in Canberra in 1969, followed in 1971 by one in Melbourne.

Adelaide is host city for 1972's Convention and some 200 B.X. Phis will be travelling from Melbourne to attend the convention.

Protect your pet from the cold

Whenever you complain of the bitter cold, spare a thought for your pet.

He is at least as cold as you are and suffers in silence.

People can combat the cold with extra clothing, more heat in the home, warm food and drink.

But domestic animals have none of these facilities.

They are sensitive to changes of temperature and could easily become ill.

The Williamstown and District Animal Relief

Society is deeply concerned about the many pets who lack warm, dry bedding and shelter.

Food straight from the fridge should not be given to a pet.

It must be remembered that animals are totally dependent on their owners for care.

Cruelty or neglect should be reported to the above society (phone 391 1296) or to the RSPCA.

Vikings hammer South Kingsville

At Grant reserve on Saturday, Vikings football team turned on another power-packed display against a vigorous, but undermanned South Kingsville.

Praises are sung of this destructible combination, as it overwhelms all-comers.

Saturday's game was no exception as the Vikings had too much aerial ability, too many pacy, skilful players and too much overall brilliance for South Kingsville.

The game was brought to life in the third quarter, when all-in brawl developed. This was well handled by the umpire, who quickly had things under control.

Perhaps the opposition, at a loss for any other counter to the Viking machine, had resorted to intimidatory tactics, which unfortunately for them, they would be hard pressed to win at anyway.

Gordon Wilson produced his best form to date, with a relentless display of roving. Gordon moved around the grounds to gain kicks, continually putting them to good use.

Gary Munro dominated at centre half-forward, and appears to be enjoying the freedom he did not have as spearhead.

Ron Schwabe dominated the scene at full forward, being particularly unselfish on many occasions.

Derek York shouldered the burden of the ruck work admirably.

Jack Rosenboom defended soundly, driving his side back into attack at every opportunity.

Marty Crump applied vigor and fearless tactics.

Mal Tisdale played his usual effective game and Stephen Chatfield was prominent on many occasions.

Geoff Ewen performed with distinction as a ruck rover, using his strength to great advantage.

Laurie Egan won plenty of kicks, and was well to the fore in the heavy clashes, as was Paterson, who could surprise as a centre man.

Enzo Valentini, playing at centre half-back, never put a foot wrong, and some of his clearing dashes were a delight to watch.

Ian McLeod started to show glimpses of his early form and the "terrible twins", Glen and Robin Morgan, combined intelligently.

Jeff Hardham was impassable on the back line and Russell Ewen cast a blanket on the resuming rovers.

Alan Walges made an impressive debut as a full back, and should be persevered with in this position.

Final scores: Altona City 23.22 (140) d. South Kingsville 1.4 (10).

Goals: R. Schwabe 6, I. McLeod 5, S. Chatfield 4, G. Munro 3, G. Wilson 2, M. Crump 2, I. Hardham 1.

SECONDS

Journeymen to Yarraville United's home ground the Vikings seconds had their first real taste of pressure and at one stage defeat was a distinct possibility.

Winning the toss, Altona City elected to kick with a strong wind, which appeared to be worth six goals at least.

They only managed 5.4 for the quarter, which in itself is not bad. But Yarraville managed to kick 2.1 against the wind.

At half time scores were level and the stage was set for a torrid second half.

The Vikings were attacking continually but their accuracy left a lot to be desired.

There were some doubts as to whether they could hold off the downwind onslaught from Yarraville, but players who had been well beaten early, lifted their game with the resultant effect that Altona City ran out winners by 24 points.

At Altona's favor also was the fact that the wind did appear to have lessened in intensity during that last quarter.

Captain-coach, Bill Devereaux led his side admirably, positioning himself in the pressure areas when necessary, and relieving the burden or driving into attack relentlessly.

Ian Hardham dashed around the ground, winning kicks, diving into the packs to come out with the ball and generally contributing effectively.

Morrie Tisdale carried the following division with a big-hearted display and some timely marks when the pressure was at its strongest.

Austin Molloy was tenacious and brilliant whether attacking or defending.

Kevin Flett played havoc with the opposition, directing the ball with exceptional accuracy.

Mike Oran flashed into the play on occasions, often managing to create a loose man.

On the whole this was not a good performance by Altona City but it proved that they have the heart to lift their game when they are down, and that they will carry the Viking banner high into the Second Division grand final.

Final scores: Altona City 11.14 (80) d. Yarraville United 8.8 (56).

Goalkeepers: T. Hogan 2, K. Flett 2, W. Devereaux 2, and one each to I. Hardham, R. Rigby, R. Morgan, A. Molloy, M. Oran.

Under 18

Down to Brooklyn, in a bruising, torrid match, the under 18 Vikings were far from disgraced in everything except the scoreboard.

Altona City appears to lack that certain something which will make it the equal of any team in this division.

What this is, defies detection, but as soon as the fault is discovered it will be eradicated immediately.

And these boys will prove that they are just as good as the other Altona City teams.

Alan Willett played his heart out at centre half-back, and his efforts prevented an even bigger win to Brooklyn.

Mike Starchivic sparked in the centre, gaining many kicks with sheer courage.

John Hampton played his usual fearless game, never shirking the issue at any stage.

Cec Martin, under extreme pressure on the backline, came through with flying colors.

David Marshall, rucking against solid opposition, tried continually.

Jack O'Connor exhibited dash and creativity on the ball.

Neil Henry tried his hardest and did extremely well with limited opportunities.

Under 16

At Grant Reserve on Saturday morning, the long-awaited return clash with Williamstown fourths unfolded.

The game turned out to be somewhat of a fizzer, as Altona City appeared to be undermanned on many occasions.

Continually playing from behind they looked to be a yard slower than Williamstown.

Down six goals after the first stanza, the Vikings staged a magnificent fightback during the following two quarters. But Williamstown's taller players and their superior kicking held them in good stead in the final analysis.

Beaten by a better side on the day, Altona City nevertheless has as much ability as Williamstown and may be able to exploit this to greater advantage come finals time.

Andrew Donnelly put together a whole game of non-stop determination, highlighted by brilliant marking.

Kevin Beben played brilliantly and never stopped trying.

Don Hyett set a fine example of courage and creativity and Gary Sorrell performed with merit as did Wayne Jones, who was busy around the ground picking up a ton of kicks.

Glen Nicholls figured in some dashing passages of play. Big Greg Clark showed out also.

Bonanza 72 — Final draw results: T. C. Brennan 1, R. Holden 2, V. Melia.

Award

I. McLeod is still ahead in the 1st Division Robert Thomas

Motors voting, with 30 from Mal Tisdale 23 and R. Schwabe 23.

W. Devereaux is still leading the seconds voting with 24 from T. Hogan 17 and D. Berry 15.

D. Marshall is out in front of the under-18 team, with 24 and G. Sorrell, on 21, leads the under-16 voting.

Strength, teamwork winning ingredients

Greater strength and team work gave Altona Centrals football team victory over Newport Methodists on Saturday.

Rex Cole again proved his value on the forward line by kicking under pressure allows his mobility and accurate kicking under pressure allows him to make the most of his opportunities.

The wings were dominated for Centrals by Danny Grey and Peter Rogash.

Danny used his pace and accurate stab passing to advance and created opportunities galore for Centrals' forwards.

Peter relished his change to the wing and continued his good form of recent weeks.

One of Centrals' big improvers is Dave Deahl, who is not only rucking and paiming the ball well, but taking his share of marks around the ground, something which Centrals have been lacking.

Centrals again were served well by Jeff Lott.

His sure ball handling and courage sets an example for every other player to follow.

Final scores: Centrals 16.15 (111) d. Newport Methodists 9.11 (65).
